

Reservoir Park Update

The Centennial Committee is making great progress in the planning of the Reservoir Park Centennial Celebration next September.

Several expressions of thanks are appropriate at this time. We wish to thank Operation Brightside for the spring bulbs given the neighborhood which have been planted on the grassy median behind our entrance sign in the 100 block of Blackburn Rd. Thank you to Ballou's Rent All for the donated use of equipment which was utilized in the planting of these bulbs as well to the Bill Ottman family and Al Ruffra who diligently worked to carry out this beautification project. A special thank you to "A" District Commissioner Chris Gorman for his support in making our celebration a success.

At our November 21st meeting, we were pleased to have as our guest Alderman Melissa Mershon who has graciously lent her support to our activities. Melissa, along with Operation Brightside, will be working with Aaron Ritman, liaison to the community and candidate for Eagle Scout, in regard to our entrance signs and the landscaping of the surrounding areas. We on the Centennial Committee are very excited and encouraged about this project. Thank you Melissa! We appreciate your interest in and involvement with our community.

Many of the neighbors have received and filled out the yellow sheet requesting information to appear in our commemorative directory. If you still have this form, please complete it and call 896-4516 to request that the completed form be picked up. Thank you to Rose Cusick, Pat Mateja, Pat Osborne and Carol Von Hoven for their efforts in distributing and collecting of information for the directory.

We are now compiling items to be used in an exhibit of memorabilia of Reservoir Park to be displayed at our celebration next year. If you have any newspaper articles, photos etc. that may be of interest please contact Jon Schmidt 896-4516. All items will be returned.

Our next meeting will be Tues, Jan 21st at 7:00 p.m. at 226 N. Crestmoor Ave. Our guest will be Bill Hollander, President of the Crescent Hill Community Council. We are looking forward to meeting Bill and hope Reservoir Park neighbors will attend. Please plan to join us.

Pat Schmidt, Reservoir Park Centennial Committee

Frankfort Avenue Collectibles & Dunc's Consignments Open on Frankfort Avenue

Two new businesses have opened in the 2400 block of Frankfort Avenue in Crescent Hill.

Frankfort Avenue Collectibles is located in the former Wobbe's Pharmacy building at 2406 Frankfort Avenue. Owner Rhonda Hill's store stocks all types of collectibles: coins, cards, documents, glassware and jewelry, along with antique furniture, dolls and books. The store buys entire estates or individual items and also sells collectibles on consignment. Hours are Monday-Thursday 9-7, Friday and Saturday 9-9 and Sunday 10-5.

Just down the street, at 2424 Frankfort Avenue, Dunc's Consignments opened in November. Proprietor Rick Duncan sells and accepts consignments of women's and men's clothing, jewelry, gifts and housewares. Dunc's Consignments is open from 11-6 Tuesday-Friday and 10-5 on Saturday.

Last Call for Members

We hate to say goodbye to old friends, but this is the last call for Crescent Hill Community Council membership renewals. All memberships expired on October 1, 1991. We've written 1990-1991 members twice, and now we're making a final plea: PLEASE RENEW YOUR MEMBERSHIP. If you've never been a member, PLEASE JOIN US.

The $6 you pay per year allowed the Council to coordinate the Model Block Project, which is leading to the revitalization of a three block commercial section of Frankfort Avenue. It permits us to sponsor beautification efforts, like the new flower beds on Frankfort Avenue and the planned "gateway" on Grinstead Drive. It enables us to monitor and react to every proposed zoning change in the neighborhood. And it funds free neighborhood events, like last month's Holiday Open House and the annual Old Fashioned Fourth of July.

If you're an old member, don't leave us now. If you've never been a member, please join us. Complete the form below and return it to the Crescent Hill Community Council, 301 South Peterson Avenue, Louisville, KY 40206. Thanks for your support.
